DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-19 and 21-27 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 8, 16 and 21 of copending Application No. 10/421919. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both disclose a semiconductor substrate with a trench, a particulate insulating layer filling at least a lower portion of the trench and comprising insulating particles and a reflowable dielectric layer covering an upper surface of the particulate insulating layer where the insulating particles are stable at a melting point or softening point of the reflowable dielectric layer. Furthermore, Claim 8 of 10/421919 application discloses that particulate insulating layer filling at least a lower portion of the trench comprises a first and second insulating particles where the average diameter of the second insulating particles smaller than the average diameter of the first insulating particles.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
